EUROPEAN NOTES.

LONDON, June 8.—It is expected the Irish Land Bill will reach the House of Commons next week and that the government will ask for the second reading of that measure before taking the final stage of the Crimes Bill up.

Lord Hartington will speak at Manchester on the 24th inst. with reference to Gladstone's recent references.

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from St. Petersburg says M. Saburoff and M. Talinshoff, formerly Russian ambassador at Berlin, have been dismissed from the diplomatic service of Russia for publishing secret official documents in connection with the controversy between the North German Gazette and the Russian press. Editor Koetekoff, of the Moscow Gazette, has been suspended for publishing the documents.

The French government has informed French ambassadors abroad that France cannot assent to an Anglo-Turkish convention, except as a basis for negotiations.

FOOLHARDY DONOVAN.

LONDON June 8.—Lawrence Donovan was arrested on Westminster Bridge this afternoon, while attempting to jump therefrom into the Thames, and taken to Bow street police court, where he was charged with disorderly conduct. The constable who arrested Donovan testified that the latter had pulled off his coat and had climbed up on the parapet of the bridge when he was seized by two men and dragged to the bridge floor. After a severe struggle, an enormous crowd was attracted to the spot by the proceedings. Donovan, in his turn, complained to the magistrate that the police had meddled with his affairs. He had wanted to show the public that it was possible for him to jump from the bridge and swim ashore. The magistrate cautioned him against again attempting to jump, and discharged him.

ENGLAND'S COTTON.

MANCHESTER, June 8.—The Guardian's commercial article says the effect of the late rise in cotton in Liverpool will undoubtedly be the cause of a further curtailment in the consumption of cotton. The opinion is held that a further advance in cotton will be absolutely beneficial, as it will hasten the closing of mills and favor the adoption of the short time movement. There is no sign of improvement in the business or even in current demand. At low prices a moderate business has been done in export yarns, but the sales have not reached the full amount. Home business has been poor. Cloth is quiet; manufacturers are discontented with the current prices; quotations are largely beyond the reach of buyers; best prints are firm, but there is little fresh business, prices being upheld chiefly by unexecuted orders.

MANCHESTER'S SHIP CANAL.

LONDON, June 8.—In the House of Commons to-day a bill enabling the Manchester Ship Canal Company to raise a portion of its capital by the issue of preference shares passed its first reading.

THE TURF.

At Ascot Heath to-day the race for the Royal Hunt Cup was won by Gay Hermit; Pearl Diver, second; Candlemas, third.

APPEALS FOR CHARITY.

VIENNA, June 8.—Owing to the inability to repeat the Fruhling Fest in aid of the Opera Comique sufferers, the burgomaster has appealed to the private charity of the Viennese as a return for the kindness of the Parisians to the sufferers by the burning of the Ring Theatre in Vienna last year.

AN ELECTIVE SENATE.

PARIS, June 8.—At a meeting yesterday of the Extreme Left they adopted M. Ladrere's proposal to elect the Senate by universal suffrage, and it was decided to submit the proposal to the Radical Left with a view to action on it.

ANOTHER MINE HORROR.

BERLIN, June 8.—An explosion of firedamp has occurred in a coal pit at Gelsenkirken, in Westphalia. Forty-one persons killed by the explosion have been recovered; twelve more are believed to be dead.

WHOLESALE EVICTIONS.

DUBLIN, June 8.—The gunboat Banterer took the Sheriff of County Clare and a body of police to Clare Island, where they evicted twelve tenants. The scenes witnessed while writs of eviction were being executed were pitiable in the extreme.

WISDOM FOR ONCE.

CAIRO, June 8.—Mahmie, at a recent council of war at Onderman, decided to refrain from making any attack on the frontier because such hostilities would prolong the English occupation of Egypt.

THE CROWN PRINCE.

BERLIN, June 8.—If the result of Dr. McKenzie's examination of the Crown Prince's throat is favorable the Prince will start for London on Saturday. From there he will go to the Isle of Wight.

AT GARIBALDI'S TOMB.

ROME, June 8.—Crowds of persons arrived at Caprera yesterday to commemorate the anniversary of Garibaldi's death. They laid wreaths on his tomb and visited his house. Many who at Garibaldi's time who were among the visitors, were deeply affected.

ALSACE-LORRAINE NOTES.

BERLIN, June 8.—The Strasburger Post denies semi-officially that Prince Von Hohenloe will resign the governor-generalship of Alsace Lorraine.

A Bill was presented in the Reichstag yesterday to regulate municipal appointments in Alsace-Lorraine.

A NEW TREATY.

VIENNA, June 8.—The government has proposed to Germany that negotiations be opened for a new treaty of commerce.

AMERICAN NEWS.

GAS THE CAUSE.

FINDLAY, Ohio, June 8.—The Great Natural Gas Celebration opened this morning. The city is decorated in the most lavish manner. Fifty eight arches span the main street bearing mottoes, arranged with gas jets. Thirty thousand gas jets will be in flame to-night and 31 gas wells of Findlay have been piped into the city to aid in the illumination. Crowds have been coming all day and it is estimated by to-night there will be thirty thousand strangers in the city.

HEAVY FORGERIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Relative to the forgeries, through which many banks in Paris and throughout Europe were swindled, the President of the Anglo-California Bank in this city says: The original letters of credit were brought here and counterfeited either in this country or England. The work must have been executed by very skillful hands to avoid any suspicion of genuineness of the forged letters of credit. The forgers were careful to draw small sums on them from the London Bank, in England, prior to presenting them for large amounts on foreign banks at Antwerp, Rome, Nice and other cities. Small amounts drawn by swindlers from the London Bank gave the forged letters a tone of genuineness, which was only a decoy to entrap other foreign banks, which suffered greater losses. The President said his bank had been advised of the forgeries, in all amounting to thirty thousand dollars. Ten thousand had been obtained in Leipsic, four thousand in Antwerp and smaller amounts in Rome, Paris, Brussels and cities on the continent.

A FEARFUL FLOOD.

JAMESTOWN, Pa., June 8.—The floods yesterday were caused by a water-spout west of Cooperville, Sumner County. That village is entirely under water and the destruction of property is great. Many bridges and logs were carried off. Upwards of twenty houses were washed off their foundations; at least 100 families in this borough alone lost everything in the lower stories and cellars of their houses. Grubbstown, Connemough, Moorellville, Mooresville, Cambria City and Coopersdale also suffered severely, and it is estimated that in the suburbs and this city 300 people were rendered homeless. No estimate can be made at present, but it is thought it will reach $150,000 in this vicinity alone.

THE STRANDED BARNARD CASTLE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—From a letter received by a gentleman in this city, we learn that the stranded Barnard Castle has been sold as she lies, to a firm in San Francisco. Again it is learned from a gentleman who is in a position to know, that another party from San Francisco has taken the contract to raise the Castle as did the party who raised the Mexico, for a larger sum than had been tendered by our local men, who are ready and capable to do such work. The law says that foreign wreckers are not allowed to operate in Canadian waters when Canadians can be had to do the work. Wreckers are not pumps and other appliances. Now, sir, we have men in this city who have had years of experience, and who have all the appliances, and who can furnish either money or bonds that they can, and will prosecute the work to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. It is to be hoped that if this stranger wants any of the Canadian appliances he will be asked such prices as will cause him to leave the country and leave the contract to local willing hands. THE LIEUT.-GOVERNOR.

Presentation of an Address Last Night—Large Attendance of the Pioneers.

As intimated in yesterday's TIMES the Pioneers of Victoria, and those of other sections of the province, numbering in all about 80, last night drove in a couple of large busses to Government House, (Carey Castle), when the following address was presented to His Honor Lieut.-Governor Nelson by Mr. John Kurtz, on behalf of the Pioneers Society of British Columbia.

THE ADDRESS.

To His Honor Hugh Nelson, Lieutenant-Governor:

SIR,—We, the members of the British Columbia Pioneer Society, beg to tender you our sincere and hearty congratulations upon your appointment to the Lieutenant-Governorship of this Province.

It has always been a source of gratification to us to see so many important positions filled by pioneers and members of our society, but we feel particularly honored in the selection of one from among us to occupy the highest position in the Province, viz: that of Lieutenant-Governor. Especially when we reflect that for nearly thirty years your Honor has been identified with the progress of our Province, and that you have always been one of the foremost in every movement that had for its object the promotion of the welfare and prosperity of the country.

Knowing, as we do, how earnestly and consistently you always advocated the cause of confederation, and since its accomplishment how faithfully and fearlessly you have, in the Dominion Commons and Senate, represented the rights and interests of our Province, we deem it a fitting tribute to your merit that upon the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, which is itself the material bond of confederation, you should be chosen by the Dominion Government to preside over the destinies of the Province that you have so ably and honorably represented for the last fifteen years, and we trust that during your Honor's term of office the Province will make such rapid progress in wealth and prosperity as will cause it to be known as the golden era of British Columbia.

In conclusion we beg you to accept for yourself and Mrs. Nelson our best wishes for a long life of happiness and usefulness, and we trust that your endeavors to further the best interests of this Province and the Dominion generally may meet with all the success that you yourself could desire.

To which His Honor, in a feeling manner, made the following.

THE REPLY.

To the Members of the British Columbia Pioneer Society:

MY VERY DEAR FRIENDS.—It gives me the greatest pleasure to receive such a large and influential body of citizens of this province belonging to the same society as myself, a society without either religious or political bias, and devoting itself to benevolence alone.

Many of you are personally known to me since the earliest days of the province, and not a few of you I am proud to say I look upon as my personal and intimate friends. I join heartily with you in the feeling of gratification and pride at the knowledge that, although new faces have been coming amongst us continually and in increasing numbers, yet old Pioneers are still found standing foremost among our principal and most important citizens, and are held in respect and esteem not only by their co-adjutors but also by the whole community. It is, however, a painful thought with me as it must be with you all, that so many respected members of our society, some of them scarcely beyond the prime of life, have been called from among us, the days of hardship, privation and trial which many have undergone in the earlier days in the attempted development of the country, have sowed the seeds of disease that have ripened only too soon. I thank you, my dear friends, for your kind interpretation of my actions as a representative of the province in the Dominion Senate and House of Commons. I can only say that with greater powers of understanding and speech my efforts would have been more successful. I can say, however, that I have always recorded my vote on what I considered the right side, and unhesitatingly gave it support.

From the earliest days I have been a believer in, and supporter of confederation, and I believe now that we of British Columbia are only beginning to feel its beneficial effects. We possess the gateway from the Pacific, the grandest ocean on the globe, to a new empire springing into existence, the ratio of whose development will be in proportion to its increase in population and both of these we may expect to progress with giant strides. Canada without the Canadian Pacific railway would have remained as Canada was before its construction. Canada, by building the Canadian Pacific railway, elevated herself into the dignity of a nation, and opened out for herself a great future. The only power possible to prevent the trade of the great Northwest passing into the hands of the great republic to the south of us, and of that great country itself eventually dropping into the lap of our powerful neighbor was the power evolved from the laying of these two narrow parallel bands of iron spanning the continent from ocean to ocean, bands of iron non-electrical in one point of view, but electrical in their effect, conveying not a spasmodic current of chained lightning, but a current of life and vigor, a current of energy and enterprise, a current of civilization and development, and the sounds of the wheels and the whistle of the locomotive echoing over the boundless prairies of the Northwest and through the mountains and valleys of British Columbia, will proclaim that humanity's monster bee-hives have found new working grounds for hive after hive of the smoked-out occupants of over-done communities.

My dear friends, it was my intention to try and make a longer and more fitting reply to your kind address, but as some of you are aware, I have been for a number of days quite unwell and feel myself quite incapable of devoting myself to this object.

I have now to thank you most heartily for the kind allusion to Mrs. Nelson and myself in the last paragraph of your address, and to express the hope that on my retirement from office you may convey with us the good wishes of the Pioneers as fully as they have been expressed to us to-day.

A copy of the address was presented to His Honor, as well as a handsomely illuminated one in a beautiful frame, which was greatly admired.

A general conversation then took place by those present, amongst whom were Mr. William Power, of Moodyville, and Mr. William Teagno, of Yale. Each and all were pleased at being present on the occasion of congratulating their friend and brother Pioneer on attaining to his present exalted position. The deputation comprised many of Victoria's solid and most substantial business men. The company were then invited to partake of an excellently prepared supper, accompanied by an abundance of the best vintage. After supper, an exchange of ideas was again indulged in. Mrs. Nelson, first chatting with one and then with another, was particularly agreeable and impressed those present with the good fortune of the Governor in having such a hostess to preside at Government House. During the evening Les Feuilles Mortes, or "the Dead Leaves" was rendered by Mr. Chas. Lombard, in his usual effective style, accompanied on the piano by Mr. John J. Austin. Before leaving the guests retired to the conservatory and drank the health of the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Nelson, with a rousing three times three and "a tiger" for each. And Long Syne was not forgotten, and the lusty voices made Government House ring, as it never before did with a—

Here's ma han' ma trusty frien',
An' gie's a han' o' thine.

The National Anthem was then joined in, after which the happy party dispersed. The occasion was one of the happiest events that has ever occurred in the province.

Catarrah, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are cured in from one to three simple applications made at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp, by A. H. Dixon & Son, 305 King street West, Toronto, Canada.—Christian Standard.

A Pioneer Killed.

Mr. Allen Vance, of the British Columbia Express Co., Okanagan, an old and highly respected resident of the Province, was thrown from his horse on Tuesday last, while hunting horses, and killed. His body was found the same evening near Lyon's ranch, and was interred on Friday at Priest's Valley cemetery. Deceased was an old pioneer and a Justice of the Peace. No man was better known or more universally liked for his generous disposition and upright character. He had property and cash to the amount of $30,000, which is left by will to his two sisters in the United States. He had no relatives in this Province.

GENERAL GAOL DELIVERY.

Mr. SPROULE, a member of the House of Commons, has given notice of a motion that, owing to this being jubilee year, Parliament should extend its executive clemency to the convicts in the various Canadian penitentiaries whose conduct has been meritorious by commutation of sentences. Mr. SPROULE'S principle is that those who have served ten years shall be given their liberty outright, and that the others be allowed a remission of ten days for every month's imprisonment since 1877. The resolution will no doubt provoke considerable discussion in Parliament and a modified scheme of general gaol delivery, in commemoration of the jubilee of the Queen, may be adopted. What is good for the East Indian malfactor ought to be equally acceptable to his Canadian brother, and if it is right in the first case, it cannot be wrong in the second. But it is to be hoped the Commons will not go too far in its dispensation of jubilee mercy. Too much mercy might prove worse to the country and to the criminals than none at all.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

A sketch of the proposed harbor improvements has been prepared by order of the Board of Trade and forwarded to Ottawa. Beginning at the entrance, at Laurel Point and West Bay, it is proposed to dredge and clear the entrance of the obstructions that exist there. The distance to be dredged extends to about a third of a mile, by an average width of 400 feet. The accomplishment of this work, it is held, would give the harbor a fine safe channel coming inwards. In addition to the work now being performed by Mr. HAYWARD under his contract, it is proposed to remove a couple of sunken reefs and shoals opposite the C. P. N. Co.'s wharf. This is greatly needed, for at times a difficulty is experienced in reaching the wharves by some of the large steamers belonging to that company. In the upper end of the harbor, opposite the saw mill of Mr. W. P. SAYWARD and the factory of Messrs. MUIRHEAD & MANN, a large quantity of dredging is also proposed so as to enable vessels of considerable tonnage to lay at anchor whilst waiting for berth accommodation. It is held that to carry out the improvements on the plan suggested by the Board of Trade would involve a larger expenditure than the government feels warranted in appropriating for the work. We trust our representatives will see to it that the matter will not be deferred any longer, and that they will not take an indefinite reply for a positive assurance that the work is to be prosecuted at once.

AN OPPRESSIVE TAX.

The new Canadian tariff appears to be the all-absorbing topic now being discussed in Great Britain. The fact that the government insisted upon collecting the new duties the morning after Sir CHARLES submitted his resolutions, created much excitement in Liverpool, Glasgow, Birmingham, and Sheffield. Thousands of tons of iron were in transit at Liverpool for Canada, all of which were stopped, pending further information as to the intention of the government to adhere to its policy. The Scotch iron masters are furious at the step taken, as it will effectually stop exportation of iron to Canada. The increase on Scotch pig is 100 per cent.; on bar iron it is 150 per cent. The following letter, signed "A Canadian exporter," at Liverpool, appears in the London, Glasgow and the provincial press generally. We reproduce it as showing the bent of public opinion in Britain on the subject:

"The unexpected and severe increase in the duty on iron and steel proposed by the Canadian Government at Ottawa on Friday last, is a strange commentary on Lord Carnarvon's speech to the delegates of the Colonial Conference at the Mansion House last week. It was known here a week or two ago that a deputation waited upon the Canadian Finance Minister advocating increased duties, and some alteration was naturally expected, but nothing like the sweeping measure proposed three days ago, and which means the total exclusion of British iron and steel from Canada. That the bill will be passed there is little doubt, and the merciless way in which it is applied is seen in the fact that the increased duties are already being enforced, subject to their confirmation by the Canadian Parliament, no matter what loss importers or others may sustain. These increased duties are owing not to any deficiency of the revenue, but merely to the desire to encourage industry, protected as it was already by a tariff on iron of 12½ to 17½ per cent. ad valorem, besides the ocean freight, which may be said to represent a further 10 per cent. The undernoted figures show the difference between the old and new duties on a few of the most prominent descriptions shipped hence to Canada. Such treatment on the part of our Colonial brethren needs no comment beyond this—that another trade will have left this country for ever, and that a few thousands more will be added to the great army of the unemployed that is being so rapidly recruited day by day:

	Present price per ton	Freight	Old Pro'd duty	New duty	Old Pro'd duty	New duty	Inc. p.c.
	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.	p.c.
Scotch Pig Iron...	36	6..	8	2..	8	4..16	8..100
Puddled Bars.....	75	0..	8	3..	8	6..37	8..350
Bar Iron.....	100	0..12	9..17	6..45	10..155

We observe that miners are grumbling very much against the tariff, for it increases the duty on their shovels to 88 per cent. In other lines of iron manufacture it is felt to be equally oppressive.

YALE NEWS.

Water Receding--Nearly Drowned--False Echoes.

The water had risen within about a foot of last year's mark, when the weather turned cold and in consequence it has receded nearly ten feet during the past few days.

Several fine showers have visited this locality of late, and were gladly welcomed. We would say encore!

Capt. Jackson, D. McQuarrie and several Chinamen were crossing the river in a canoe, en route for Siwash Creek mines on Monday, when their boat became unmanageable, owing to the strong current, and they narrowly escaped a watery grave.

Considerable interest is still manifested in mining matters, and several fresh hands have gone to the mines during the past week. Those brave and hardy knights of the pick and shovel feel confident that untold wealth lies just beneath their feet, but that if requires time and capital to bring it to the surface. Before many weeks, however, the public may expect something interesting in this direction, which will make some of our jealous, skeptical and envious friends (?) turn pale.

By the way, considerable of merriment was produced on the arrival of the Colonist last week by the perusal of the able and profound lecture to journalists from the talented and "reliable" echoist of this highly favored town. Why, sir, our mining interests sink into insignificance when we consider our literary fame in having a man who can so ably dictate to the leading journalists of the world. I presume it will be copied in all the leading newspapers of the United States and Great Britain. What a rare tit-bit for Puck, Hawkeye and the Siftings. It may seem somewhat strange to some of you journalists to be thus chastised, but you must remember, sir, that you are addressed by no less a personage than a "Superannuated Editor" of a defunct newspaper. The journalistic fraternity may, therefore, well fear and tremble, for this retired sage has scores of just such lectures filed away, and only requires a moment's posting. Now, sir, as to reports being "reliable and trustworthy," reminds me of the report sent from this place when the shops were burned. It was reported among the "Echoes" that the loss of property was $100,000, and certain individuals were graphically described as flitting hither and thither, giving the command, whilst the glare of the sun-light on the ice-bergs floating down the river, was pictured as indescribably grand. Whereas, when the facts became known, the loss was shown to be about $10,000—the active commander was 100 miles away, and the ice-berg scene was only the reflection of the lamp-light on the looking-glass as the "old reliable" sat in his bed and penned his "trustworthy" "Echoes." I had thought that all the old machinery and scraps from this town had been sent away, but it seems that there still remains one squeaky crank, and one rusty old saw. It would seem that the Hudson Bay man at Victoria was not so far astray after all. But why squeak so much about the mines? Particulars may be given next week—Poor old fellow! "Misery loves company," seems to be the motto of this Wise Old Saw.

The Salmon Catch.

A San Francisco dispatch says that a gentleman in that city who has made the salmon industry a study gives his views on the general outlook as follows: The Siuslaw river salmon pack, which will probably be about 7000 cases, has been sold to an English company on private terms, said however to be $1.17½ a case. This is regarded as a good price, as the brand is new and the pack unknown. The Rogue river salmon pack will be about the same as last year, 10,000 cases. There is no full report from the Columbia river canners, but the pack is estimated by dealers here to be equal in extent to that of last season. The run is a fair one, and the reported catch to the boat is a good average, ten to twelve fish a day. Just how many boats are in the business it is difficult to ascertain. It is known that there has been difficulty in getting fishermen to man boats, but a good many have gone from the Sacramento valley, and others have been obtained from various sources. On the Sacramento there is no change in the situation, as nearly as can be ascertained. The pack there for April and May will not exceed 3500 cases. Canners who have still a few grains of hope, look forward to a good run in July, although there is really nothing on which to base a confident expectation.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle 10c. Try it.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, ostarrhal deafness and hay fever are cured in from one to three simple applications made at home. GUARD THE FRONTIER.

Possibilities of a Raid from Washington Territory.

Suspicious Movements of Supposed Spies.

Some months since the writer read a pamphlet with the title "The Eagle and the Shamrock," written by one Geo. Ambrose McNeill, of New Brunswick, and who had lived some years in the United States. His opening treats of the attitude of the United States on Irish independence, and he addresses "the intelligent mind and loyal heart of Great Britain."

McNeill says, upon page 7 of his pamphlet: "I have heard the Irish leaders in America assert it many times that when the first gun is fired in Ireland for independence, simultaneously with it will be heard the rattle of musketry all along the frontier of the Dominion of Canada."

The great anxiety displayed for the fortification of Esquimalt would argue that the citizens of Victoria, at least, are aroused to the necessity of doing something to protect the capital and vicinity. This is praiseworthy; but there are places in the interior on the mainland that are at present very much exposed. While recently traveling as an agent in the section east and south of Okanagan Lake, toward the Washington Territory boundary, some incidents were related which look as if trouble might be expected in that quarter. About the middle of May two rather rough men (Irishmen) arrived at the mission valley and said they had followed the trail from the Custom House, where Judge Haynes resides, and were looking for work. Their appearance reminded one of eastern tramps. They soon met an old acquaintance at the valley; a man that has been about the place for some time, occasionally working for one and another. He is a native of Nova Scotia and had served in the late American rebellion, doing duty as a spy at times. Although born under the British flag his feeling was hostile to British institutions; he is a disciple of Bob Ingersoll, and sometimes offensive to right-thinking men. Recently he has been apparently unsettled in his mind, and had packed his pony two or three times to cross to Washington Territory. However, his two friends at length arrived, and several private conversations were had with them. They visited the Mission Creek mines and other places of note; after a few days in the valley the two new-comers and the Nova Scotian packed up their traps and left by the trail for Washington Territory.

It is stated they have rough maps of the lay of the land in the valley and a description of the principal ranches; in fact know well the whole route to the C. P. R. The man that had been here for some time was inquisitive about the amount of cattle, horses, etc., that each settler owned, and lately took a good deal of interest in the new ranches up Mission Creek, where the greater part of the stock of the valley now is.

All this might be natural enough were it not that said party more than once remarked that in the event of war commencing about the fisheries or other cause, that a few well guided raids from Washington Territory would strip the valley of all the stock. The route is reported to be favorable to give adventurers an opportunity to plunder. Again it has been stated that the war would give bands of desperadoes a pretext to overrun this country wherever weak points could be found. Unfortunately there is no organization of any kind in Spallumcheen, Okanagan, Osoyoos, Similkameen, or even in Kootenay. Depending upon coming together by chance would be poor reliance. Let it not be said we are alarmists; there is too much reason to believe that trouble is brewing for this country. The American feeling would seem to be growing stronger against Great Britain and the Dominion. Recent legislation at Ottawa is calculated to irritate our neighbors across the lines, and it is quite evident the sympathisers with Ireland are becoming bolder as proved by the press and utterances of public men. Of course the London Times and the Salisbury government are causing intense hatred on the part of Irish-Americans and those who think as they do. This, together with the mysterious action of the three men referred to, furnishes food for alarm to the people of the country exposed to raids from Washington Territory. Is it not time for some organized protection to Okanagan, etc?

ILLUMINATING GAS.

History of Its Invention and Processes Employed in Its Manufacture.

The first artificial production of illuminating gas from coal was made by one Dr. Hales, of England, about the year 1726. This was simply done as a scientific experiment, and was not put to any practical use. In 1786 the Earl Dundonald, of Scotland, obtained burning gas by distilling coals, and for experiment lit up his castle with it. In 1792 Wm. Murdock put in apparatus for the use of gas in his workshops at Redruth and Cornwall, and was the first to reap the full advantage of the discovery. In 1802 the Soho foundry, near Birmingham, Eng., was lighted by gas, and soon after it was introduced into the mills of Manchester. In 1813 London bridge was lit by gas, and by 1819 it was used throughout the main part of that city, and was soon after introduced in all the large towns of England and Scotland. About 1800 a French scientist also discovered the method of making gas, and it was generally introduced into continental circles about the same time that England began to make use of it. The manufacture of gas consists in distilling from coal the hydrogen contained therein and freeing it as far as possible from impurities before it is used for purposes of illumination. Burning gas can also be made from wood and from certain oils, but the labor of its manufacture from these substances renders it very unlikely that they will ever be extensively used for this purpose. Bituminous coal is the substance almost universally used, and the process of distillation is as follows: The coal is put in a closed retort of cast iron or fire-clay over a coal fire, and in about four hours it has given you all its gas, leaving the coke only in the retort. The gas passes into a large pipe, called the hydraulic main, which is kept partly filled with water. Here the water, ammonia, tar and other matters that escape from the coal with the gas are partly condensed. From the hydraulic main the gas is conducted into the condensor, a series of bent iron tubes, which are kept as cold as possible by means of a stream of cold water upon their outside surface, to further arrest its impurities by the process of condensation. It then goes through a case called the scrubber, which contains pieces of coke, over which water constantly trickles, to eliminate any traces of ammonia that may still cling to it. From this it passes through the lime purifier, an iron box fitted with shelves, on which is placed slaked lime, to absorb the carbonic acid in the gas. Part of its sulphuretted hydrogen is also taken out here, and the remainder is eliminated by a passage through caustic soda, sawdust and oxide of lead, or iron sulphate. The gas is now ready to be passed into mains and conducted to large reservoirs, whence it is conveyed to houses for use. In large gas manufactories, this process goes on continually, the coke being removed from the retorts as fast as made, and fresh coal put in. It is said that the quality of gas largely depends upon the degree of heat applied to the coal in the retorts; if these are insufficiently heated the gas will be imperfectly distilled, while if they are too hot the gas itself is partially decomposed, and becomes deficient in illuminating power. When properly made illuminating gas is pure hydro-carbon, containing 92 per cent. of carbon and 8 per cent. of hydrogen. The average yield of gas is about 10,000 cubic feet to every ton of coal. If it could be furnished to consumers at the mere cost of manufacture, without the usual premium paid to the corporations that control it, it would be the cheapest illuminator known, and would also become extensively and serviceably used as a fuel.—Toledo Blade.

BARRELS FROM PAPER PULP.

The Inventors Say That Marsh Grass Can be Used to Manufacture Them.

The growing scarcity of the timber supply has given rise to the serious question of how to produce packages for oil, liquors and similar substances which will meet the demands of the market. This question has at different times during the last twenty years led to various attempts to produce a paper barrel which would answer all the purposes for which the wooden barrel is used. These attempts, however, have been attended with no practical success until recently, when a barrel was produced from paper pulp which seems destined to supersede the wooden article. Its general appearance is that of the common wooden barrel thickly varnished, while only five pieces are used in making it. It is bound with ordinary wooden hoops and the head is of one piece, so constructed that it fits into the barrel air tight and is held firmly in place by a hoop without the use of nails. The body is seamless and the interior and exterior are glazed with a substance which renders the barrel impervious to moisture so that liquids of all kinds can be transported in it without loss. It is also very strong and stiff, not easily broken and as the nature of the compressed paper is such that neither dry nor damp weather affects it the contents retain all their aromatic qualities. There are numerous other excellent qualities claimed for this barrel.

Not long ago the chief flour inspector of the New York Produce Exchange certified that he had inspected 150 barrels of flour which had been shipped from a distance in these paper barrels and had found them to be all sound. It generally happens when flour is shipped in wooden barrels that a quantity of it sifts through the cracks where the staves join and is lost. It was found by weighing the flour shipped in paper barrels that none of it had been lost in this manner.

The pulp used in the production of these barrels is obtainable from any fibrous substance, and as there is hardly a locality where some such substance does not grow the barrels can be manufactured at most anywhere. The bulk of the wood used for the manufacture of barrels, however, is now brought from western Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin and, as the supply is constantly decreasing there the difficulty and expense of obtaining the timber is increasing. The inventors of this process for making these barrels say that the weeds and rank grasses which grow on the meadows lying between Jersey City and Newark will produce an excellent pulp for this purpose and that thus practically waste lands may be made productive and profitable. The cost of manufacturing the paper barrels is no greater than that of making the wooden article and, with the patented machine, it is said that two men can produce 600 barrels in a day.—New York Tribune.

It is best in plan and design, giving superior results in practical work; best in workmanship—the fitting, finishing and hardening of the working parts being most careful and exact, without the useless polishing of prominent non-wearing parts for the purpose of catching the eye. It has the best wood-work ever used on any sewing machine. No other sewing machine can show as good a record.

An Assault Case.

In the Police Court this morning Charles Zoelle was charged with assaulting S. R. Goetz. The difficulty occurred at the Bavaria Brewery, Fort street, about 5 o'clock last evening, and was caused by a trivial affair. Zoelle struck Goetz a terrific blow over the head with a mash board, inflicting painful scalp wounds. It is claimed by Zoelle that he acted in self-defense, as Goetz had a knife. On the strength of Dr. Jackson's evidence that the wounded man could not appear in Court for several days the case was remanded till Saturday, Zoelle being allowed to bail in the sum of $500 and two sureties for $250 each.

Banff Coal.

Hon. Senator Thorp, of Wisconsin, vice-president of the Banff Coal Company, when in Ottawa last week said that his company would commence to ship in a few days to British Columbia and Manitoba at the rate of 500 tons a day. Shipping would have commenced earlier had not the men been employed for the last two weeks in making air shafts and taking other precautionary measures for the safety of the miners. One hundred and twenty men are now employed. According to this we will have anthracite coal for our stoves in Victoria next winter.

Mathers was brought to New Westminster for treatment. Steps will be immediately taken for the arrest of Harris.

Obituary.

The late Geo. Milne, whose death at Nanaimo was announced in yesterday's TIMES, passed away in the hospital there of consumption. Deceased had been indicted by the Grand Jury of Nanaimo yesterday for arson, and the trial was to have taken place at once, but stern justice was baffled by that grim monster, death. Deceased was about 45 years of age, and held a life insurance in the Citizens' Co. for $1,000.

Mr. Theodore Hart.

A well known and prominent citizen of Montreal died in the north of France on the 30th ult., in the seventy-second year of his age. Deceased was a native of Montreal. In business he was successful and left an estate valued at $500,000. He was uncle to the Messrs. Hart, managers of the Citizens' Assurance Company of Montreal and Victoria.

Mlle. Rhea.

This clever artiste will make her last appearance in this city on Monday evening, June 13th. She is now on a farewell tour of America, it being her intention to quit the stage for private life at the close of her present season. Her success this year has been phenomenal, and she has been playing to crowded houses. Her repertoire is extensive, and, better still, new, and her plays are spoken of on all sides as being remarkably well selected. Her company, also, is characterized as decidedly the best which has yet supported her. The artists for this farewell tour were selected by the lady herself, and have been rehearsed carefully under her personal direction, so that theatregoers may expect a thoroughly meritorious performance. Mlle. Rhea's costumes are said to be marvels of the dressmaker's art. In the play, in which the actress will be seen here, she will wear some magnificent robes, designed and made by Worth of Paris, the celebrated man-milliner.

A Clever Arrest.

Deputy Sheriff Langley has given the press a true version of the manner in which he succeeded in capturing and handing over to the Portland authorities defaulter C. P. Dixon of the Canadian Pacific in that city, and for which he received the reward of $250 offered for the apprehension of Dixon by Frank Bros., the Portland agents of the American Security Society. The Portland papers blame Mr. Langley for deception in decoying Dixon across the lines and then giving him away. The story as recited by Langley is the experience of every skillful detective, and he is to be congratulated on the clever manner in which he baited the bird and got him safely caged. In Portland there is considerable sympathy for Dixon amongst railway men and others, with whom he is reported to have been a great favorite.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada. *

The Victoria Gardens.

The Victoria Gardens at the Gorge are becoming a very popular place of resort. Each day parties and picnics are held there. Next Friday will be a gala day at the gardens, on the occasion of the picnic of the officers and men of H. M. S. Caroline. The picnic will begin at 1 o'clock. There will be 150 men besides the captain and officers present. Prior to going to the grounds the men will march through the city headed by their fine band. After refreshments have been partaken of the games will take place. These will consist of the usual athletic exercises and the climbing of a greasy pole. The affair no doubt will be a most enjoyable one. A large number of citizens have signified their intention of being present.

The Supernatural.

D. J. Stansbury, M. D., of San Francisco, will arrive in this city to-morrow from the Sound. The gentleman is a spiritualist of a high order and a celebrated independent slate writer, and has manifestations like the renowned Foster. The names of spiritual friends will appear in blood letters on his arm, wonderful slate writing, names on rolled slips of paper and other phenomena that go to make a spiritualist full-fledged are the medium's forte. He will be taken in hand by a well-known spiritualist on arrival and his future actions be made known in due time.

A Desirable Class.

The London Canadian Gazette states that the first party of Norwegian fishermen and farmers which left Liverpool for Valdez Island, British Columbia, took their salmon and herring nets with them. Several of them are fish-curers, who will enter at once into the smoked salmon and kippered herring trade. After building houses these forerunners will be joined by their families and a large party of friends in August next.

The Pioneer Steamer.

The Abyssinia, which will be due at Vancouver next Sunday evening or Monday morning, has 21 cabin passengers; 80 Chinese; 2,500,000 lbs. of tea; 63 bales of silk and other merchandise. The Sardonyx will be in waiting for the Abyssinia's arrival at Vancouver to transfer freight and passengers for the Sound ports and Portland.

Still at Large.

Alex. McLean, who, with two Siwashes, was in pursuit of Spencer, the murderer of Pete Foster, returned from the chase on Monday last without the murderer, who is still at large and making for the boundary. Supt. Roycraft, who returned last night, leaves to-morrow for Spokane Falls, via the N. P., to intercept the fugitive.
